

Ageless Skin Moisturizer

Description

Ageless Skin Moisturizer is light and silky and will deliver a satin feel with a matte finish.

Receive powerful hydration while protecting from environmental damage and surface signs of aging.

Skin Script redeveloped this fundamental moisturizer to include the antioxidant-rich AD-RESYL®, obtained from Ophiopogon Japonicus Root Extract, which may help to soothe and reduce the appearance of skin irritations. Used in traditional Chinese medicine, this ingredient improves the skin barrier, restores skin homeostasis, and reduces the appearance of redness and irritated skin.
